

PRODUCT MANAGER – FULL-TIME

About Us

Parcelly is a new smartphone based service allowing consumers to collect their online purchases and parcels close to home, work, or wherever is most convenient for them. Launched in December 2014, we are operating today a network of more than 600 parcel collection points in Greater London and the rest of the UK and we are growing every day, so this is a hugely exciting time to join!

The Role

Parcelly is looking for an experienced Product Manager to guide the design, development, and support of features on our core product. Do you get excited about building and shipping beautiful products? Do you enjoy diving into details with your team and helping them succeed? Do you write great product specs and turn them into real plans?

Great. Come work at Parcelly!

Your role will involve a variety of different responsibilities including:

- Define your features. Write specs and user stories, create wireframes, prototypes, test plans, release checklists. Communicate functionality and incorporate feedback. Rinse and repeat.
- Prioritize your work as well as your team's. Manage the backlog of features.
- Manage the daily workflow with a team of engineers and designers. Do whatever your team needs to help them keep moving.
- Create and maintain your team's roadmap and milestones. Work with your team to estimate, implement, and build features while ensuring that you're working on the highest priority things you can be.
- Represent your team in communication with product, engineering, and marketing leadership.
- Ensure we ship well-crafted product at a timely pace.
- Get back to work. ;-)

The company is based in Interchange Triangle, London NW1 8AB.

About You

- Minimum 5 years of product management experience on a consumer or enterprise product.
- BA degree required; MA or MBA is also fine.
- Previous experience shipping and iterating on successful products.
- Previous startup experience.
- Ability to work independently, communicating across multiple time zones.
- Proficient at differentiating products particularly with respect to other competitive offerings
- Comfortable and willing to be a hands-on contributor
- Experience with enterprise SaaS vendors preferred

- Bachelor's degree required
